Johnson Scores Twice.

Alden Johnson, Central halfhack, went over fer the first touchdown after about eight minutes of play. He had gained about nineteen yards through the line to put the ball on the three-yard line. Two well-executed forward passes brought Central's two other touchdowns. In the second period Full-back Birthright heaved to Childress for a twenty-yard gain and Johnson again showed ability to hit the line by breaking through for a remaining five yards to the goal.

Gordon, substituting for Birthright, the French shot a twenty-yard pass to Childress and the latter scored, dashing five yards after making a brilliant catch. Both teams resorted frequently to the aerial game and with considerable success. Toward the end Gongaga completed several passes in succession for moderate gains. Colliere is Star.

Colliere caught one of these and after a nifty bit of broken field work, was felled and injured. This young only ster was pretty much the talk of the On several occasions he ripped

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.-Ivan Olson, the veteran infielder of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is likely to find himself manager of the Kansas City club in the American Association next season.

Ivan has been with the Dodgers since 1915 and has outlived his usefulness as a member of the team. He has been playing in the big show more than ten years and is about to step aside for younger blood.

Ivan is well known in Kansas City, and as that club is in need of a man ager, Olson's appointment as a pilot would no doubt meet with the approval of the Kansas City fans. Eddie Collins Was On
